

ASSOCIATION OF DESIGNERS OF KENYA

REGULATIONS NO. 4 OF 2018 ON BENEFIT OF BEING A REGISTERED ADKE

MEMBER.

1. Inclusion of all Member categories in the Online Membership Directory.
2. Issuance of Membership Certificate identifying you as a member who accepts the Code of Ethics and Professional Practice in Design in Kenya.
3. All Members subscribe to Code of Ethics and Professional Practice Regulations which the industry uses for self regulation. Through the Code, ADKE highlights the best practices in design.
4. Unlimited access to Members only Login area on www.ake.or.ke
5. ADKE is currently championing legislation in the National Assembly to regulate the practice of design in Kenya.
6. The Association conducts, supports and co-hosts Professional training sessions as part of Continuous Professional Development Programmer for their members.
7. Provision of Professional Reference to any member incase it's required in due course of undertaking professional duty.
8. ADKE broadcast many relevant opportunities to its members including opportunities for recruitment, consultancies, professional development and so on.
9. ADKE is an Institutional and Support partner and a Member of various National and International Entities supporting the objective of the Association and designers in Kenya.
10. Access to the latest product available in the design market through a shared Network portal.
11. Knowledge sharing and Networking through events (general meetings, activities, educational seminars and special events) organized for members.
12. At ADKE, you have the opportunity to volunteer towards helping organize it's events for membership and Leadership Development.
13. Participation in the Membership surveys and access to results.